

Orcutt Academy High School

Student Compact/Model for Success

"Success is the place in the road where preparation and opportunity meet."
Unknown

The responsibility for a successful education begins with you, the student. As an Orcutt Academy High School student you must put forth your best effort to prepare yourself for your post-secondary and/or college experience. You will be faced with a rigorous and challenging standards-based curriculum delivered by teachers who will have high expectations for your achievement. Concurrently, you are expected to create an atmosphere of teamwork and cooperation that supports success for you and ALL students.

To create your path to success, the following responsibilities fall upon you as an active member of the Orcutt Academy High School family. As you read the information, remember that this is a model for the successful Orcutt Academy High School student.

Student agrees to:

1. Participate fully in the responsibilities of attending a COLLEGE PREPARATORY HIGH SCHOOL.
2. Participate in school activities and classroom activities as completely as you are able.
3. Follow all rules set by both the district and the school.
4. Adhere to the OAHS dress code.
5. Attend school and each class on time every day.
6. Complete all school work and homework daily.
7. Produce high quality work that meets or exceeds class standards.
8. Meet all graduation requirements.
9. Show respect for self, school, students, community, and families.
10. Understand that as an OAHS student you represent yourself and the school in all you do.

The goal of Orcutt Academy High School is to provide high school age students a thorough, rigorous, and standards-based education, with a special emphasis of equipping students for life after high school. The Academy will provide vital knowledge to the next generation of graduates so that they will become self-motivated, competent, life-long learners, who are ready to engage with the world.