In case of medical emergency, I as the legal parent or guardian of the above named child, authorize both transportation and medical services if the school is unable to locate me. I understand these medical services will be at my expense. If my child's regular physician is not available, I authorize the school to secure the services of a qualified doctor or hospital.

Initials

I, as the legal parent or guardian of the above named child, hereby authorize and give my permission for my son/daughter/legal charge to participate in field trips. Under Education Code Section 35330 (d) persons participating in a school sponsored field trip are statutorily deemed to have "waived" all claims against the Orcutt Union School District arising out of an injury, accident, illness or death occurring during or by reason of the field trip. Pursuant to California Education Code Section 35330 (d), I hereby waive all claims against the Orcutt Union School District, the County Office of Education, or the State of California for injury, accident, illness or death occurring during or by reason of the field trip. Note: Students will not be allowed to leave a field trip with anyone other than their parent/guardian.

Initials

Parent permission to transport your child is required by State Education Code Section 35350. The two occasions when we will need to provide transportation are: (A) Educational field trips and (B) Athletic, club or social activities. Your signature on this form grants permission to the Orcutt Union School District to transport your child as stated above.
